

SARAH AND THE GOOD FILM MOVEMENT

One of the humorous and pathetic child stories now being told among the members of the League for Good Films seems quite worth publishing. A certain principal in one of our schools filled with the children from the poor district was distributing a number of tickets for last Friday afternoon's matinee.

The children upon whom these rewards were bestowed were representatives of the elite of the school as far as merit was concerned and were elected by the children themselves.

Little Sarah, however, was decidedly bored by the whole proposition. She could see beautiful wonders in the next block for a nickel.

Her hand was raised and her small shrill voice piped up:

"Please, Miss Blank, I don't want this ticket. I guess I give it to Jackie."

Miss Blank, being wise in the ways of kiddies, replied:

"Now wait, Sarah, let me tell you the story of the picture first, then you may do as you like."

So Sarah waited.

After the artistic, appealing little film story of "Mollie Make Believe" had been told in a manner inspiring to childish hearts, Miss Blank waited. In a flash came Sarah's hand. "Please, Miss Blank, I guess I don't give my ticket to Jackie. I guess I go myself."

And so herself Sarah did. She is now a loyal supporter of the league, has become a self-imposed advertisement for the Friday afternoon matinee, and the children of that school are all clamoring for the opportunity of going again. It is opening up a new vista to these children of small joys, and it is for this that the league is spending the money in its treasury and needs support.

Don't you think it well worth while?

MRS. HOWARD BODE'S SHOWER

Thursday afternoon Mrs. Norma Adams was the guest of honor at a miscellaneous shower given by Mrs. Howard Bode. The rooms were very pretty with their decorations of cut flowers and plants. After the guests had arrived and were busily engaged chatting Mrs. Bode appeared at the front entrance with a dainty basket whose handle was covered with flowers and a tulle bow and showered Mrs. Adams with the gifts of her friends. Those enjoying Mrs. Bode's hospitality were Mrs. Stanley McKee, Mrs. Jack Guard, Miss Ruth McClesney, Miss Martha McClesney, Miss Violet Atherton, Miss Pauline Schaefer, Mrs. Reynold B. McGrew, Miss Sara Lucas, Miss Ruth Anderson, Miss Jenny Berg, Miss Dorothy Guild, Mrs. Cyril Hoogs, Miss Lucille Hoogs and Miss Dorothy Hoogs.

MR. WILLIAM WARREN A DINNER HOST

Around a table which was most attractive with its central decorations of sweet peas and violets, Mr. William Warren was a dinner host on Friday evening at the Pleasanton Hotel. Dancing was the pleasure of the guests for the evening. Mr. Warren's guests were Miss Williams of Seattle, Miss Capps, Mrs. James D. Dougherty, Mr. Arch Boyd, Lieut. H. P. Milligan and Lieut. Eugene Robinson.

MISS RUTH SOPER'S INFORMAL TEA

Miss Ruth Soper entertained very informally at tea on Thursday afternoon. The afternoon hours passed very rapidly as the needles flew in and out of dainty Christmas gifts. Those enjoying Miss Soper's hospitality were Mrs. Ray M. Allen, Mrs. G. A. Braly, Mrs. Fred West, Miss Anna Johnson, Mrs. R. Gaylord, Mrs. Grover T. Batten, Mrs. Ralph Clark, Miss Dorothy Guild and Miss Merle Hanna.

MRS. CLAUDE WATSON'S BRIDGE

Mrs. Claude Watson was a bridge hostess on Wednesday of this week. About 30 guests enjoyed the hospitality extended them by Mrs. Watson.

AN INFORMAL LUNCHEON

Mrs. Renton Hind was hostess at a small informal luncheon when she entertained Mrs. E. S. Cunha, Mrs. W. J. Coon, Mrs. McLain of Waipahu and Mrs. Mueller of Ewa on Tuesday. The table was very pretty. An artificial lake was in the center and on top of the water floated pretty yellow pond lilies.

LADIES' GUILD OF WAILUKU

The Ladies' Guild of the Church of the Good Shepherd of Wailuku held their annual sale and dance on Saturday of last week in the gymnasium hall. It was a splendid success, everything being disposed of in a few hours, and then dancing was enjoyed until a late hour. All the social world of Wailuku was present.

MISS CLEMENS ON MAUI

Miss Clemens, the talented niece of the late Mark Twain, has been over on Maui, where she was lavishly entertained. Mr. Gooding Field was host at a fishing party in her honor. Then the ascent of Haleakala was made, the party coming back by way of the ditch trail, than which no finer bit of scenery is to be seen on Maui. Miss Clemens is gathering material for future lectures and without a doubt Hawaii will be greatly lauded by her.

MRS. ERNEST WATERHOUSE'S TEA

At the opening on Wednesday afternoon of Miss Helen Alexander's tea room, Mrs. Ernest Waterhouse entertained a few friends. Those at her table were Mrs. Fred Waterhouse, Mrs. Arthur M. Brown, Mrs. Ismay Stubbs, Mrs. W. Singlehurst and Mrs. R. Buchly.

MR. AND MRS. I. M. STAINBACK'S DINNER

Friday evening Mr. and Mrs. I. M. Stainback entertained at a dinner party. Covers were laid for ten guests.
